As with many European cities, the Sofia City Centre is the best area to stay in Sofia, as this area combines Old Town and modern Sofia. By choosing a hotel in central Sofia, you will have the best museums and attractions at your doorstep. The Eagle Bridge, National Palace of Culture, the National Theater and the St. Alexander Nevski Square all surround the city centre.

Sofia is Bulgaria's capital and its largest city. Founded thousands of years ago, today the city continues to develop as the country's cultural and economic center. Sofia is located in the western part of the country, on The Sofia Plain and the lower slopes of Mount Vitosha. The city's average altitude is 550 m above sea level, the climate is moderate and continental, characterized by cold winters and relatively cool summers. The average temperature in January is 1 degree below zero, and 20 degrees in July. The city is located at a strategic crossroads. The route from Western Europe to Istanbul passes through Sofia via Beograd and Skopje, then through Plovdiv to Turkey. Sofia also connects The Near East and The Middle East, lying between the banks of the Danube and the shores of the White Sea on the one hand, and between the Black Sea and the Adriatic on the other. Sofia is relatively close to the capitals of most Balkan countries: Ankara is 1 012 km; Athens is 837 km; Beograd is 374 km; Bucharest is 395 km; Zagreb is 762 km; Ljubljana is 897 km; Sarajevo is 549 km; Skopje is 239 km; Tirana is 553 km.

Please note that the presented accommodations are only indicative and have been created to give approximate price ranges. However, prices may vary depending on the reservation terms, such as the number of people per room, breakfast, parking, early check-in, etc.*
